

2012 Mental Health Lecture Series

Neuroscience, Mental Disorders and Today's Therapy World

A series of free community education events for patients, families, caregivers, healthcare providers and the community, sponsored by the Mental Health Community Centers, Sarasota Memorial Bayside Center for Behavioral Health and Sarasota Memorial Healthcare Foundation, Inc.

David V. Habif Jr., MD, a nationally recognized physician, researcher and advocate for children and families affected by mental health issues, will present a series of free mental health seminars.

Seminar Dates & Topics

- ▶ Feb. 25: Schizophrenia
- ▶ March 24: New Frontiers and Depression
(co-presented by Parlane Reid, MD, Chief Medical Information Officer and Psychiatrist, Sarasota Memorial Health Care System)
- ▶ April 21: Brain Health and Wellness: Practical Applications for You and Your Loved Ones

Seminar Location

Sarasota Memorial Hospital's first floor auditorium
1700 S. Tamiami Trail, Sarasota

Registration begins at 9 am, with presentation from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm. 3 CEUs available for each seminar to qualified professionals for $15 fee.

FREE TO THE COMMUNITY
Register at MHCCI.com or call (941) 953-3477

Underwritten by The Isermann Family Foundation

Event Sponsors

